Dear [Insert Name]:

We are pleased to announce that the Honorable Caroline Kennedy, former Ambassador to Japan, will be speaking at our upcoming Voices Against Violence benefit on May 16 at 6:30 p.m. at the residence of the Japanese Ambassador. The benefit, co-chaired by Alison Shulman, Sandra McCoy and Katharine Weymouth, supports the DC Volunteer Lawyers Project's pro bono work on behalf of domestic violence victims and at-risk children.

In 2016, DCVLP lawyers donated 15,000 hours of free legal assistance and provided representation to hundreds of domestic violence survivors and at-risk children. We also served hundreds of survivors at our Domestic Violence Resource Clinic, where victims can access housing, counseling and legal services in a community-based setting. To keep making this kind of positive impact in our community, we need your help!

We have a wide range of sponsorships available, including one lead underwriter spot available for $25,000. All sponsors will have their names listed in the invitation and in the event program, and sponsors at the Guardian level and above will receive tickets to our VIP reception. Our top sponsors will each have an ad in our program and will be featured on our social media and website. More information is at: www.dcvlp.org/vav2017/vav2017sponsors. As an added benefit, donations to DC Volunteer Lawyer Project count towards qualifying [insert name of law firm] as a "Raising the Bar" firm.

To be included on our invitation, please e-mail the Sponsorship Card below to Katie Carden, Development and Executive Assistant, at kcarden@dcvlp.org or click here to pay online by March 20, 2017. If you any questions, please feel free to contact Katie Carden via email or at (202) 885-5542.

Many thanks for your support,

Karen Barker Marcou, Esq.
Executive Director
